Miracle Testimonies

Restless Leg Syndrome

Shirley had been suffering from restless leg syndrome for at least five years. She had such a hard time sleeping, and she couldn't even sit through an entire church service without having to get up and walk around. What agony!

We saw Shirley on Memorial Day Weekend at the New Vision Church in Ravenna, Kentucky. She told us how God had healed her the last time we were at the church in January. She had come to the altar for prayer, explaining the problem to Bro. Bill.

Under the direction of the Holy Spirit, Bill had me pull on each of her legs. When I did, something popped. Another lady told me that she heard it back where she was sitting. Shirley testified that the pain left immediately, and she has been completely free since that day, rejoicing over the fact that she can now sit through church without getting up, and also that she can sleep at night.

What a blessing! We give God all of the glory for His healing power!!

Prisoner Healed

We're privileged to go into a Federal Prison (Medical Center) four times each year and hold a service in their chapel. We usually have about 50 - 75 men. After their praise and worship service, I sing a special song; then, Bill preaches and prays for the men.

With time being limited, the altar service is shorter than what most of you are used to (who have been to one of the Miracle Services). Nevertheless, through the years, we have seen many get saved, recommit their lives to Jesus, as well as receive miraculous healing.

In June, a man came up to Bill following the service, and testified that he'd had severe pain in both of his legs, but after Bill prayed for him, the pain immediately left. Isn't God wonderful?!!

In your prayer time, please remember the men and women in our prisons. There may be a lot of evil and darkness in these places, but God is also there, shining through that darkness, and changing lives for His glory!

Autoimmune Disease Gone

We just returned from a revival at the Trosper Church of God where we saw two people get saved — Hallelujah!!! The first night we were there, Angela Fuson told us how God had recently healed her. It got us excited, and I asked her if she could write it all down for our newsletter. Here is what she wrote:

"I had started breaking out about January of 2007 in severe hives from head to toe. I looked like I'd been stung by 200 - 300 bees. My whole body would be red like I'd been burnt and my eyes, lips, ears, feet, and everywhere would break out in raised, itchy, painful hives.

This went on every day for almost two years. No doctor could figure it out, and finally, an allergy specialist did tests on me for everything, and all he could figure out was that it was an autoimmune disease — something in my blood, and no one knew how I'd gotten it.

He started me on two pills a day and told me I would have to take them the rest of my life to keep this under control. After I'd been on the medicine for about 1½ years, I went to a prayer meeting at Trosper Church of God, where Bro. Bill and Sister Vicki were, and had gotten prayer for this — not only this, but other sickness, as well. I was so sick all the time. I had no energy, and I didn't feel like doing anything.

I got in the prayer line for my healing. Bro. Bill told me I was like the little lady with the issue of blood, and if I'd believe, he would believe with me to be healed. I was scared to come off of my medicine at first, but now I have been off of them for two or three months.

I am doing real good! I've had no more hives, and I'm feeling great and full of energy. In fact, I now walk six miles a day. Praise God!"

We Need Your Testimony

If you have a testimony that we've not yet printed, please let me (Vicki) know.

God performs miracles everywhere we go, and I often don't have, or don't remember, all of the details surrounding each of them.

First, we want to glorify God for all He's done! Then, we also want to help build faith so that others can receive their miracle, too!

FROM PRISON TO FREEDOM

If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. (John 8:36)

They say that when an elephant is captured in the wild, they tie its leg to a huge banyon tree in order to train it. Of course, the elephant will do everything within its power to free itself. However, in time, and after much effort, he finally realizes that when he pulls on that leg, he isn't going anywhere. Once he has tamed down and become accustomed to his "prison," the owner can then untie his leg and take him where he wants to go. Then, when he needs to confine him, all he has to do is tie his leg to a stake, and the elephant will stay put.

The elephant has the strength and ability to easily pull up that stake and go wherever he wanted, but because of his conditioning, he believes that when he feels the tug of the rope around that leg, he is helpless to move and doesn't even try to get free.

Then, I'm sure you've heard the story about the trained fleas. The fleas are captured and put into a jar with the lid tightened. Like the elephants, the fleas keep trying to jump out. Before long they figure out when they jump to the top, they will end up with a headache from banging their heads on the lid. The fleas soon learn their limitations and know just how high they can jump in their new home.

Once they've become accustomed to this, you can take the lid off of the jar. The fleas are now free to leave and go visit the nearest cat or dog, but they won't. Even though they've gained their freedom, they still jump around in the jar just like the lid was still in place.

One of my favorite stories, though, comes from an old western comedy,

Support Your Local Sheriff. James Garner has been made sheriff in this rinky-dink town. When he goes into his office and jailhouse, he discovers that there are no bars on any of the cells. When he turns around with a perplexed expression, they quickly explain that they just haven't come in yet. Without a word, the sheriff gets a bucket of red paint, and dipping his brush into it, proceeds to splatter red paint in a line where the bars should go.

It isn't long before he must arrest and lock up a bandit, who thinks a breakout will be a cinch in his new home. However, the sheriff, nonchalantly, props his legs up on the desk and asks this prisoner if he sees the red line. He tells him it's the result of what happened to the last guy who tried to break out . . . poor fellow! Of course, the prisoner believes this story to the point that when his buddies try to come to his rescue, he won't leave.

It's easy when you're on the outside looking in at each of these—the elephant, the fleas, and the bandit—to see how ridiculous it seems for any of them to be confined to their make-believe prisons. It seems so obvious to us that they are free to go and do what they want. However, with the truth being distorted, they are deceived into believing that they must live in these self-made prisons.

Years ago, God gave Bill a dream where he saw row after row of jail cells. The prisoners in these cells weren't criminals. No! They were Christians. Some needed to be freed from sickness and disease. Some needed to be freed from a spirit of poverty. Still, others needed to be freed from Satan's bondages and traps that they had fallen into. God told Bill that through the power of His Spirit, he was to unlock these prison doors so that His children could be set free.

It is most exciting when we see sinners freed from their sins and accept Jesus as their Lord and Savior. It is also exciting when we see Christians healed, set free, and delivered. Jesus desires for us to be free in Him.

Unfortunately, in our quest to unlock the prison doors and set them free, we see many Christians who continue to sit in their prison cells with the door wide open. They have the ability to walk out, but they don't. For various reasons, Satan has deceived them into believing that they are still prisoners.

One example that comes to mind is the woman who came into a service on crutches. She was on disability and said she wanted healed. Bro. Bill prayed for her, and she was healed. She threw her crutches down and ran all over the church. Some time later, we asked someone about her, and I couldn't believe what I was told.

The woman, fully healed, knew that she was no longer eligible for disability and became concerned how she would live, until she talked herself right back into her sickness. She believed the lies of the devil. Didn't she realize that if Jesus set her free from her sickness, he would also make a way for her to earn a living? She chose to live in her self-made prison rather than accept the freedom Jesus had given her. Don't be like her! Choose to live free in Jesus!

And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. (John 8:32)

HOW WOULD YOU FEEL ...

If God gave us the same amount of time and attention that we devote to him?

If God put as many things ahead of us as we put ahead of him?

If God offered as many excuses as we do, and if the excuses were no more justifiable than ours?

If God's promises were no more certain than ours?

If God withheld his blessings from us as we withhold our offerings to him?

JUST TO LET YOU KNOW

Any time someone buys any of our products, (CDs, books, or other items on our table), the profit from these sales goes toward our traveling expenses for the ministry, such as gas, food, or an occasional motel room. Unlike the honorariums, we don't keep any of that money for personal use.

A woodpecker tapped with his beak against the stem of a tree just as lightning struck the tree and destroyed it. He flew away and said, "I didn't know there was so much power in my beak!"

When we bring the Gospel, there is a danger that we will think or say, "I have done a good job." Don't be a silly woodpecker. Know where your strength comes from. It is only the Holy Spirit who can make a message good and fruitful. (Corrie ten Boom)
